1. What does the term Secular in the Indian Preamble mean? 1 Point

- ○ The state follows one official religion
- ○ The state discourages all religions
- ◉ Equal respect for all religions
- ○ Religion has no place in public life

2. Which pair of words was added to the Preamble through the 42nd Constitutional Amendment in 1976? 1 Point

- ☐ Sovereign & Republic
- ☑ Secular & Socialist
- ☐ Liberty & Equality
- ☐ Justice & Fraternity

3. Which of the following makes the Indian Constitution the "longest written Constitution in the world"? 1 Point

- ☑ It has over 470 Articles and 12 Schedules covering diverse governance issues
- ☐ It includes only the Fundamental Rights and Directive Principles
- ☐ It is written in multiple languages
- ☐ It follows the British parliamentary system exclusively

4. Which of these countries did not influence the Indian Constitution? 1 Point

- ☐ US Constitution
- ☐ Irish Constitution
- ☐ Canadian Constitution
- ☑ Soviet Union's October Manifesto

5. Who among the following was a woman member of the Constituent Assembly known for advocating gender equality and women's rights? 1 Point

- ☑ Hansa Mehta
- ☐ Annie Besant
- ☐ Indira Gandhi
- ☐ Sucheta Kriplani

6. In the Kesavananda Bharati case (1973), what important doctrine did the Supreme Court establish? 1 Point

- ☐ Universal Adult Franchise
- ☐ Fundamental Duties
- ☑ Doctrine of Basic Structure
- ☐ Judicial Review is abolished

7. Which of the following best explains why studying Constitutions is important? 1 Point

- ☐ They help citizens understand global trade laws.
- ☑ They establish the framework of governance and protect citizens' rights.
- ☐ They outline only judicial procedures.
- ☐ They are mainly meant to regulate international relations.

8. What does the "blend of rigidity and flexibility" in the Constitution imply? 1 Point

- ☐ All provisions can be changed by a simple majority in Parliament
- ☑ Core provisions require special majority and state ratification, while others can be altered by a simple majority
- ☐ The Constitution cannot be amended under any circumstances
- ☐ Only the judiciary can amend the Constitution

9. The Indian Constitution is called a "living document" because: 1 Point

- ☐ It can be rewritten every year.
- ☐ It changes automatically without amendments.
- ☑ It can be amended to adapt to social, political, and economic changes.
- ☐ It applies only to citizens living in rural India.

10. What does the phrase "We, the People of India" in the Preamble signify? 1 Point

- ☐ India is ruled by a king.
- ☑ Power belongs to the citizens of India.
- ☐ Only elected representatives have authority.
- ☐ India follows a theocratic system